

Announcement of The National Institute of Educational Testing Service (Public Organization)

Subject: Declaration of intent for the policy of Good Governance Management

Towards a Model Virtuous Public Organization in Fiscal Year 2026.

The National Institute of Educational Testing Service (Public Organization) (NIETS) has realized and placed importance on organizational management based on the principles of good governance to become a model virtuous public organization, which has created confidence and faith in the management of NIETS among the general public.

According to the Official Information Act B.E. 2540, the Royal Decree on the Criteria and Procedures for Good Governance B.E. 2546, and the Constitution of the Kingdom of Thailand B.E. 2560

The National Institute of Educational Testing Service (NIETS) has therefore announced its intention policy to operate its performance with good governance principles, aiming to become a model public organization of integrity. All NIETS executives and staff shall serve a code of conduct as follows:

1. Manage and operate in accordance with the principles of good governance, focusing on achieving results, maintaining quality and standards, complying with the law, ensuring transparency and accountability, and avoiding conflicts of interest with the primary aim of serving the best interests of the nation.

2. Work with commitment, have a good conscience, and adhere to religious principles, the philosophy of the sufficiency economy, and the Thai way of life. We strive to encourage 5 core virtues: sufficiency, discipline, honesty, volunteerism, and gratitude within the organizational culture of virtue, good people, an effective system, and a happy work environment.

3. Enhance strategic partnerships and guide the advancement of educational quality in accordance with academic and professional standards at all levels and in all types of education to ensure that Thai people meet national education standards and move toward international benchmarks aligned with the core values of NIETS.

Hereby announced to be acknowledged and strictly observed accordingly.

Announced on 3 October 2025

(Asst. Prof. Sirida Burachat, Ph.D.)

National Institute of Educational Testing Service (Public Organization)